PEACE COLLEGE

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

JESSIE DIXON . . . Editor

JANE PURCELL . . . Business Manager

Foreword

We, the members of the Lorus staff, present "March Onward March" as our 1966 theme. A great era ended last spring when Dr. William C. Pressly retired after serving Peace College as President for thirty-nine years. Under his leadership, Peace developed prestige and outstanding recognition as a Christian junior college, fought for her life and won, grew in plant and enrollment, and aided thousands of girls to become better Christian leaders in all walks of life. But let's look to the future: Peace is now fortunate to have Dr. S. David Frazier as President. It is his desire to keep Peace in her path of progress. His plans to do this are "to retain everything that is good and beneficial of the old (administration) and to initiate the new only when it is certain that the new is superior to the old." Peace Girls, we can aid Peace in her march for progress. Let us make our goal one of support to Peace College in her . . .

March on-ward March, The goal is straight be-fore us

The first system of musical notation for the song. It consists of three staves: a vocal line in treble clef, a piano accompaniment in treble clef, and a bass line in bass clef. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Bright is the light that guides us on our way

The second system of musical notation, continuing the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Wide is the world and God's blue sky is o'er us,

The third system of musical notation. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Daugh- ters of Peace, Be strong for her to-day

The fourth system of musical notation, concluding the page. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Bright is the light that guides us on our way . . .

Daughters of Peace, On whom the light is shed . . .

Ever abreast, so swell the column royal . . .

Spiritually

Daughters of Peace, be strong for her today . . .

We Dedicate . . .

We, the Lorus Staff, take great pleasure in dedicating our annual to our advisor, Mrs. Glenn Randall. As our advisor, she has given us untiring aid. As a teacher, she is deeply devoted to her work and has given hundreds of girls a widening interest and knowledge in English. As a friend, she is always willing to listen and help girls with their problems. Her Christian personality and her warm smile are noticed by everyone she meets.

Because of her sincere interest in the Lorus and in the Peace girls, it is with gratitude and warm affection that we dedicate this, the 1966 Lorus, to Mrs. Glenn Randall.

Student Government

Dear Peace Girls,

With the help of each of you, the Student Government has tried to make this year as successful as possible. We've all had good times as well as rough ones, but your cheerfulness and friendly attitudes have made all matters very pleasant. We ought to feel extremely proud and lucky that we attended Peace during its year of progress and academic improvement and that we helped to strengthen it.

The Student Council hopes that it fulfilled all your and the administration's expectations in making this year worthwhile and creative and that it was a council to be proud of.

Many years from now, when you review past moments of your life here at Peace, I hope all the thoughts and memories will bring great happiness to you.

Sincerely,

ELLEN ROSS

Standards which have been set for Peace students are established in the Honor Court Pledge. Any infringements of these laws are dealt with by girls elected to carry out the duties of the Honor Court Board.

Honor Court

Betsy Butler, Linda Harris, Ellen Ross, Amelia Hooks.

Development of Christianity in each Peace individual throughout the student body is promoted by a cabinet chosen to direct the interest of the association, which includes all students. Religious activities sponsored by the cabinet include Morning Watch, Hall Prayers, Vespers, and Christmas and Easter Programs.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is a national organization composed of high school honor students.

The members provide enthusiasm in school activities, encourage students to do their best, lead in many areas of school life, and uphold the standards of Peace College. In so doing, they provide incentive to all other prep students to strive for membership in the organization.

Seated: M. Goodwin, S. Moore, President; E. Webb. Standing: J. Green, E. Howe.

PHI THETA KAPPA

A chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the national junior college academic honor society, was established at Peace in 1939 under the local name of Gamma Phi Chapter. The aim of the society is to promote scholarship and to develop character. Membership at Peace is limited to those in the upper ten per cent (scholastically) of the regularly enrolled student body who meet the specified requirements as to character.

Seated: E. Ross, J. Dixon, J. Carr, President; S. Caldwell, A. Hooks, B. Butler. Standing: C. Clark, L. Poole, K. Bynum, J. Price, N. Shannon, J. Basset, M. Stevens, G. Hall, G. West, A. Carlisle. Absent: J. Napowsa.

ALPHA PI EPSILON

A chapter of Alpha Pi Epsilon, the National Secretarial Honor Society, is maintained at Peace under the local name of Tau Chapter.

This year the Tau Chapter had two projects. The first project was a questionnaire which was sent to Peace graduates from the business department over the past three years. The purpose of the questionnaire was to determine if Peace graduates find a knowledge of office machines beneficial.

The second project was to establish a permanent roster of Peace graduates in the business department beginning with the year 1966. The roster includes the name, home address, business address, and kind of employment of the graduate.

Seated: J. Bell, B. Milton, M. Fitzgerald, President; A. Knott, N. Lindsay. Standing: S. McGee, P. Byrd, D. Massey, P. Pugh, M. Dudley, J. Myrick, J. Mayfield.

Seated: F. Joyner, B. Butler, E. Avery, D. Farmer, S. L. Dorsey, B. Milton, H. Perkinson, N. Gainey, L. Hunt, D. Boykin, L. Schlosser, M. Faircloth, C. Simmons, S. Davis, C. Bynum, J. Ashworth, K. ## Young Democrats Club

Anyone who wants to get a better understanding of the Democratic Party of the United States is invited to join the Young Democrats Club. Members obtain a fuller understanding of the political positions of their country and a firmer foundation for their own political connections.

The Young Republicans Club is composed of a group of Peace students whose political convictions tend to be like the convictions of the Republican Party of the United States. In campaign years the Young Republicans Club sometimes helps in the local headquarters of Republican nominees. In other years the club seeks to understand not only the Republican Party but also the policies of the present Administration. By understanding the position America takes in world affairs, the Young Republicans gain spirit and sound basis for their political convictions.

Spanish Club

Hablar Espanol? Then this is THE club! The monthly meetings include such varied activities as learning Spanish customs, songs, and dances, while sampling food. The club discusses the future and the problems of Spain and other Spanish-speaking countries. The Spanish Club affords an excellent opportunity to parallel the study of its language.

Not all of the members of the Art Club are potential Rembrandts, but they all have an interest in art! Each year the club has a project to raise money. This year the members held a bazaar at Christmas. Every member contributed something she made to the sale. The only requirement for membership is enthusiastic originality.

Peace College Choir

The melodious voices of thirty girls in perfect tone and harmony form the Peace Choir. Singing for chapel services, special programs, and civic clubs are just some of their duties. Christmas activities came to a climax with the Candle-light Service by the choir. The College Choir combined with that of the First Presbyterian Church for a radio-broadcasted Christmas service. In March the choir sang at the installation of the new president, Dr. David Frazier. This spring the choir gave a concert and assisted at graduation exercises. Under the direction of Mr. Raymond Kreiner, the choir combines talent with pleasure.

How does one make a Home Ec Club? Stir the ingredients of home decorating, styling, grooming, cooking, and sewing in a large pot. Heat with enthusiasm until boiling. Add many girls and let mixture stand. The result is an active Home Ec Club. This year the club adopted two welfare projects. Dolls were dressed at Christmas for underprivileged children, and children were entertained in the Raleigh hospitals. The club adopted as its continuing project to explore the history of the furnishings of various college rooms and to make a permanent record of their findings. The Home Ec Club puts the emphasis on activity.

International Relations Club

Once a month the International Relations Club meets to discuss current affairs. The advisor is Mrs. J. N. Bond. Discussions, debates, and lectures fill the agenda with social, political, and economic problems. Among the speakers the club has had the Good Will Ambassador to Egypt. A banquet is planned for the spring.

Tribute is paid by members of this club to the mothers and grandmothers who attended Peace. The club has as its objective to uphold the Peace tradition and heritage. Among the club projects were a bazaar in February and a tea on Founder's Day honoring the alumnae.

Daughters and Granddaughters Club

First row: F. Potter, E. Baxter, C. Caulk, J. Fansler, Miss C. Shearer. Second row: G. Proctor, J. Spicer, S. Smith, S. Calloway, H. Deal, N. Anderson, A. Thomas.

Delta Chi

With an emphasis on creativity the Delta Chi dance club offers students with interest and ability the opportunity to express themselves. Under the capable direction of Miss Shearer, the dance club interpreted the carols, "Silent Night," "O Come, O Come, Immanuel," and "Deck the Halls" for the Christmas Assembly. The Delta Chi's are responsible for the success of May Day and spend many hours working on the dances. This year the dance club and drama club held a reception for the members of the Aviv Theater of Song and Dance. The Delta Chi club combines pleasure with skill for rewarding results.

Stunts, lighting, music, and costumes are the ingredients for water ballet. Add enthusiastic girls who love to swim, and the whole result is a successful Porpoise Club. Due to a large membership the club was divided into two groups. The girls create their shows and perform for civic clubs and parties. In January, Porpoise Club members attended a workshop at Duke University. The highlight of the year was the Porpoise Club ballet held in the spring.

Dramateers

Play production and coöperation are the objectives of the Peace Dramateers. Under the enthusiastic direction of Mr. Johnson, the drama club has blossomed. In September a committee was elected to write the constitution. The club built backdrops for the production by the Aviv Theatre of Song and Dance and joined the dance club in giving a reception. Three one-act plays were given in January—"Overtones," "The Sandbox," and "Sorry, Wrong Number." In the spring the Peace Dramateers presented a major production. If the life of the theatre appeals to one or if one's heart pounds with the excitement of an opening night, chances are she is a Peace Dramateer!

As one of the oldest clubs at Peace, the Papyrus Club's objective is to stimulate interest in creative writing. Each year a booklet is prepared containing the poems and short stories of the members. Guest speakers talk of the vocational opportunities and other material interesting to aspiring writers. The Papyrus Club is a helpful guide for creative writers.

Much work was done in the preparation of this yearbook. The editorial staff spent many hours planning layouts, taking pictures, and writing copy, while the business staff members were busy selling advertisements. The staff presents this annual in hopes that the students will find much pleasure in reading and keeping it. We hope it records for you many of the wonderful experiences of your years spent at Peace.

Activities

Orientation

Besides the long lines involved with registration, orientation at Peace is a front lawn supper for everyone, nightly hall meetings for new girls, hen parties with old friends, meeting new boys as well as faculty members, and the unceasing problem of finding enough room for "junk."

Student-Faculty Picnic

As a highlight to the Orientation Program, the Student Government Association sponsored a student-faculty picnic. The purpose of the picnic was to create a closer relationship between the students and the faculty than the classroom can offer. Everyone enjoyed the picnic and the chance of getting better acquainted.

Big Sister-Little Sister Program

Old students begin to correspond with new students in the middle of the summer, advising "Little Sisters" as to what color their bedspreads should be, and what length curtains to buy, interesting them in clubs, and bragging on certain fraternities. "Big Sisters" help the new girls find their way in their new environment.

Honor Court Pledge

Tradition as well as truth establishes the honor pledge all Peace students memorize and repeat to the Honor Council in an all-white candlelight service. Each girl realizes the importance of the oath to herself and to Peace in the closed ceremony.

Candlelight Service

The Peace Student Christian Association plays a vital part in the lives of the girls at Peace as it enriches their lives both spiritually and secularly. Each year a special candlelight service is held in which the student body voluntarily joins the P.S.C.A. The first phase of the candlelight service is a vesper program in the chapel. Following the service, the girls file silently outside, forming a line on both sides of the walk and the fountain. Here the members step forward and give their pledge. The candles which the girls carry symbolize their faith in God and their willingness to serve Him.

Halloween Party

October 25 was the day for ghosts, goblins, and ghouls to creep out of the musty corners of Peace and have a ball. And that's exactly what happened! The P.S.G.A. sponsored a Halloween affair with prizes, fun, and jokes to liven the party. The Grover Hermann Student Center was mysteriously decorated with orange and black streamers hanging from the ceiling.

Peanut Week

During Peanut Week this fall, students ate candy bars they wouldn't buy for themselves, found dolls in their beds, and found special favors hidden in rollers. At the picnic ending this special week, the girls found out who their mysterious donors were.

Christmas Supper

The Christmas supper enabled all the Peace girls to celebrate Christmas together. It was our only "sit-down and be served" meal of the year. After a wonderful dinner the Christmas gifts for the kitchen staff were presented by our "Santa Claus" while the girls sang carols and enjoyed the Christmas spirit.

Honor Society Tapping

Girls who are in the top ten percent of their classes after first semester grades are averaged and who merit the honor are tapped by standing members into the various societies. The honor societies at Peace are Phi Theta Kappa, Alpha Pi Epsilon, and National Honor Society.

Weekend of the Green

The highlight of the year was the hailing in of the spring season with the Weekend of the Green. The big weekend began with Stunt Night. Each class had a good time presenting its stunts to the faculty and to their dates.

On Saturday afternoon the Grover Hermann Building was the scene of an informal dance with music provided by the Embers. It was a weekend to remember.

May Day

At the first of May, a May Day celebration was held on the front campus. Jeanie Menius, the queen, was crowned and reigned as the Dance Club entertained her and her court. The dancers performed modern interpretations of American folk songs.

Aviv Theatre of Song and Dance

In November Peace College was privileged to have the Aviv Theatre of Song and Dance for a campus performance. The dancers captured their audience by the mysticism, joy, and beauty of dancing on a superb level. The dancers—Frances Alenikoff, Ann McKinley, and Jerry Scott—were excellent in communicating the ideas and feelings of dances like "Welcome Sabbath Bride," "Morning In Galilee," "Shango," and "Gig." Eliezer Adoran added excitement as the singer and accompanist. Peace College was indeed fortunate to have such a wonderful group, and they were well received by the Student Body. Following the evening performance, a reception was held for the dancers by the Peace Dramateers and the Dance Club.

Peace Drama Productions

On January 13 and 14 in the Dinwiddie Chapel, the Peace Dramateers made their fall debut with the performance of three one-act plays. Laughing through "Overtones," amazed by "The Sandbox," and mystified by "Sorry, Wrong Number," the audience enjoyed the varied program. In the cast of "Overtones" by Alice Gerstenberg were Jane Gillis, Sarah Lynn Dorsey, Jane Walker, and Mary Wilson. Edward Albee's "The Sandbox," a piece from the Theatre of the Absurd, included Drucie French, Jan Olsen, Singleton Bain, David Campbell, and Bob Tennant. After a brief reception and intermission the audience returned for the final production. In the cast of "Sorry, Wrong Number" by Lucille Fletcher were Jodi Fansler, Betsy Church, Hannah Crews, Martha Goodwin, Connie Railey, Jennifer Johnson, Andy Leager, Homer Foil, and Frank Ragsdale.

May Day festivities are a highlight of the school year and are held each year in May around the traditional May Pole. The May Queen is crowned and rules over the day's activities. She and the Maid of Honor are elected by the popular vote of the student body. Each class elects two representatives to the court. The festivities conclude with an interpretative dance by Delta Chi Dance Club. As May Day draws to a close, each spectator declares this one to be more lovely than previous May Days.

Marshals

Seated: Amelia Hooks, Chief. Standing: Betsy Butler, Ellen Webb, Sally Moore, Ellen Ross, and Sally Caldwell.
Not pictured: Nancy Tolar.

The girls who wear a marshal ribbon over their white dresses were chosen last spring by the student body of 1965 to be representatives, hostesses, and guides for 1965-1966 because of their leadership abilities and high scholastic averages.

Athletics

*Horseback Riding . . .
Not quite Stewball.*

Modern Dance . . . Heads up, shoulders back, tummy in.

Physical Education

Archery . . . William Tell, Jr., or Cupid lying in wait?

Folk Dancing . . . Our version of London Bridge.

Speed ball . . . Come to me!

Golf . . . My, what a wrinkled green.

Body Conditioning . . . On your mark, get ready, get set, go!

Swimming . . . Don't just stand there, Miss Edwards. Help!

Jolly Green Giants

Jolly Green Giants versus Little Green Peas.

Oops!

The Giants' Peapickers.

Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou, Romeo?

Gotch'a.

Powder Puff Football

Bottoms up!

Hit the road, Jack!

Measure it.

Fight! Fight!

Come on, Emily, let's see some action.

You call those cheers!

Now, here's the plan.

Let's do the volleyball Rumba.

Where is that ball?

Students Versus Faculty

I've got it.

All thumbs.

Candid Camera

Does this really belong in the bedroom?

What do you mean my date is here?

Smile. I think this will be a long nine months.

Hi! I'm Dawn and I'm the Senior Class Mascot.

Betty has a slight problem.

Sally's only problem is not Second Finley.

Who want's to stand in that ole receiving line anyhow?

"Hey, I know you."

"Lovers' Concerto."

After a hard night's date.

I can't help myself.

Happiness is afternoon soap operas.

"I fought the law and the law won."

"Monkey Time."

"Mr. Pitiful."

Rocky says, "Make me your baby."

Happiness is togetherness.

Peace is for the brave.

Happiness is a well-run fire drill.

"Baby, I need your loving."

Happiness is a DATE!

Come see about me.

Security is knowing you look good.

Security is knowing your laundry is in the Girls' Living Room.

Security is a Christmas party.

Happiness is food.

My group had 64% more cavities!

"I'd rather fight than switch."

"Batman

"Would you believe . . ."

"Don't you wish everybody would?"

Walter better show up!

And Robin."

Eek! Mice.

Ooh!

Look busy, Betsy; here comes Mr. Thomas.

Kitte, you're not posing.

Friends to the end.

"Help!"

What a way to go!

Eek! It wiggles.

Muff, what's in it?

Strike in Central Hall?

We love closed study.

"You've got to be putting me on."

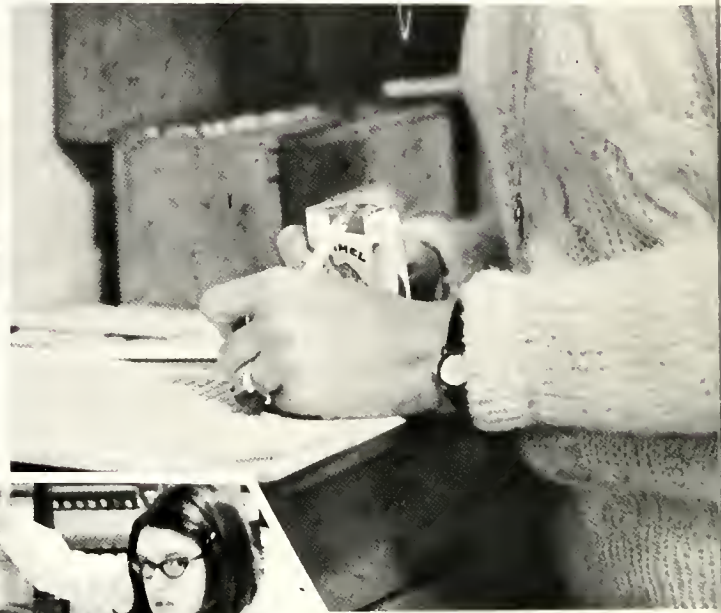

Chapel Hill, here we come!

Sorry, I'm booked 'til June.

EVERY SPRING

Yes, every spring a student's thoughts will turn to flowers and bees and things . . . and graduation and bees and things . . . and every spring we turn our thoughts to students and yearbooks and things . . . and class pictures and type and things . . . and . . . why go on—the finest yearbooks are produced by Edwards & Broughton, Raleigh.
